TRIENNIAL DINNER Marking the Royal Faculty Library's 200th Anniversary Friday, 24 February 2017

The Royal Faculty's Triennial Dinner is one of the flagship social events of the legal calendar. The dinner coincides with the 200th anniversary of the Royal Faculty Library and will also be a celebration of this significant milestone for the legal profession in Glasgow. Having been established in February 1817 the library is one of the oldest in Scotland and an institution which the Royal Faculty is rightly proud of.

The dinner is an ideal event for members to socialise with clients in a relaxed setting, treat their staff to a prestigious night out and support their Faculty.

Book early to avoid disappointment.
